

FROM VULNERABILITY TO RESILIENCE: ACTIONS TO IMPROVE THE LIVING CONDITIONS OF THE SYRIAN REFUGEES AND THE HOST POPULATION IN LEBANON AND JORDAN

AICS Amman works jointly with Jordanian Institutions on:

LIVELIHOOD

- Technical and vocational training (women and youth)
- Job matching
- Support to self-employment

PROGRAMME SUMMARY

As the massive presence of Syrian refugees contributes to an increasing unemployment rate in Jordan, medium and long-term support initiatives are being unfolded in the Country to help mitigate this destabilizing effect of the Syria crisis and the resulting increase in the number of people living below the poverty line.

In order to enhance access to sustainable livelihoods, the programme “From vulnerability to resilience” focuses on strengthening employment opportunities through the development of vocational training courses, micro-business activities, equipment supply and technical assistance to employment centres, and job placement – with a particular focus on women, youth and people with disabilities.

The training courses build on the basis of a labour market analysis carried out in order to identify the employment opportunities and the professional skills required in the areas of intervention. All courses include theoretical lessons and periods of paid training in private companies, cooperatives or public institutions.
